"Do you ever feel so deep and lost
somewhere in the past,
And is it wrong to not hold on if nothing ever lasts.

Nothing lasts forever,
not the mountains or the sea,
but The Times We Had Together,
they will always be with me.

The sun is down and
the wind is calm,
and as it gently fades away,
I wonder then and I think of you,
and how nothing ever stays."

While nothing lasts forever,
one thing holds always true,
After what we've done together,
I will always remember you.

O P

Morgan "Goose" Heintz and Allison "Beep" Taff have become great friends from all the crazy times they shared together throughout high school.

E N I N G

"Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime.
We'll take the best, forget the rest, and someday we'll find...
These are the Best of Times"

Beginning of the End

SMILING AWAY. Morgan Heintz, Mike Treadway, Chris Fulchino, Jess Kushner, Joe Scheier-Dolberg, Jeff Levine, Brendan Harley, and Kate Davies have always been full of smiles and ideas.

MAN WITH A MIND. Will Harding's "tell it like it is" attitude adds a lot to the spirit of the class of '96.

BLONDES VS. BRUNETES. "All naturals here?"

METCO REPS Wyndell Blair, Keone Glover and Doug Dawson have been friends since kindergarden and are the three male METCO representatives to the Class of '96.

PIGGY BACK RIDE. Jesenia Castro unexpectedly decides she needs a lift from Natalia Kennedy.

CAMERAS OVER HERE GUYS! Now here's a group of 96ers who aren't afraid to show what they're thinking . . or not thinking.

BIG MEN ON CAMPUS. These seniors presence was certainly felt on campus.

GOOD FRIENDS, GOOD TIMES, GOOD CLOTHES. These girls look more like J Crew models than high school seniors.

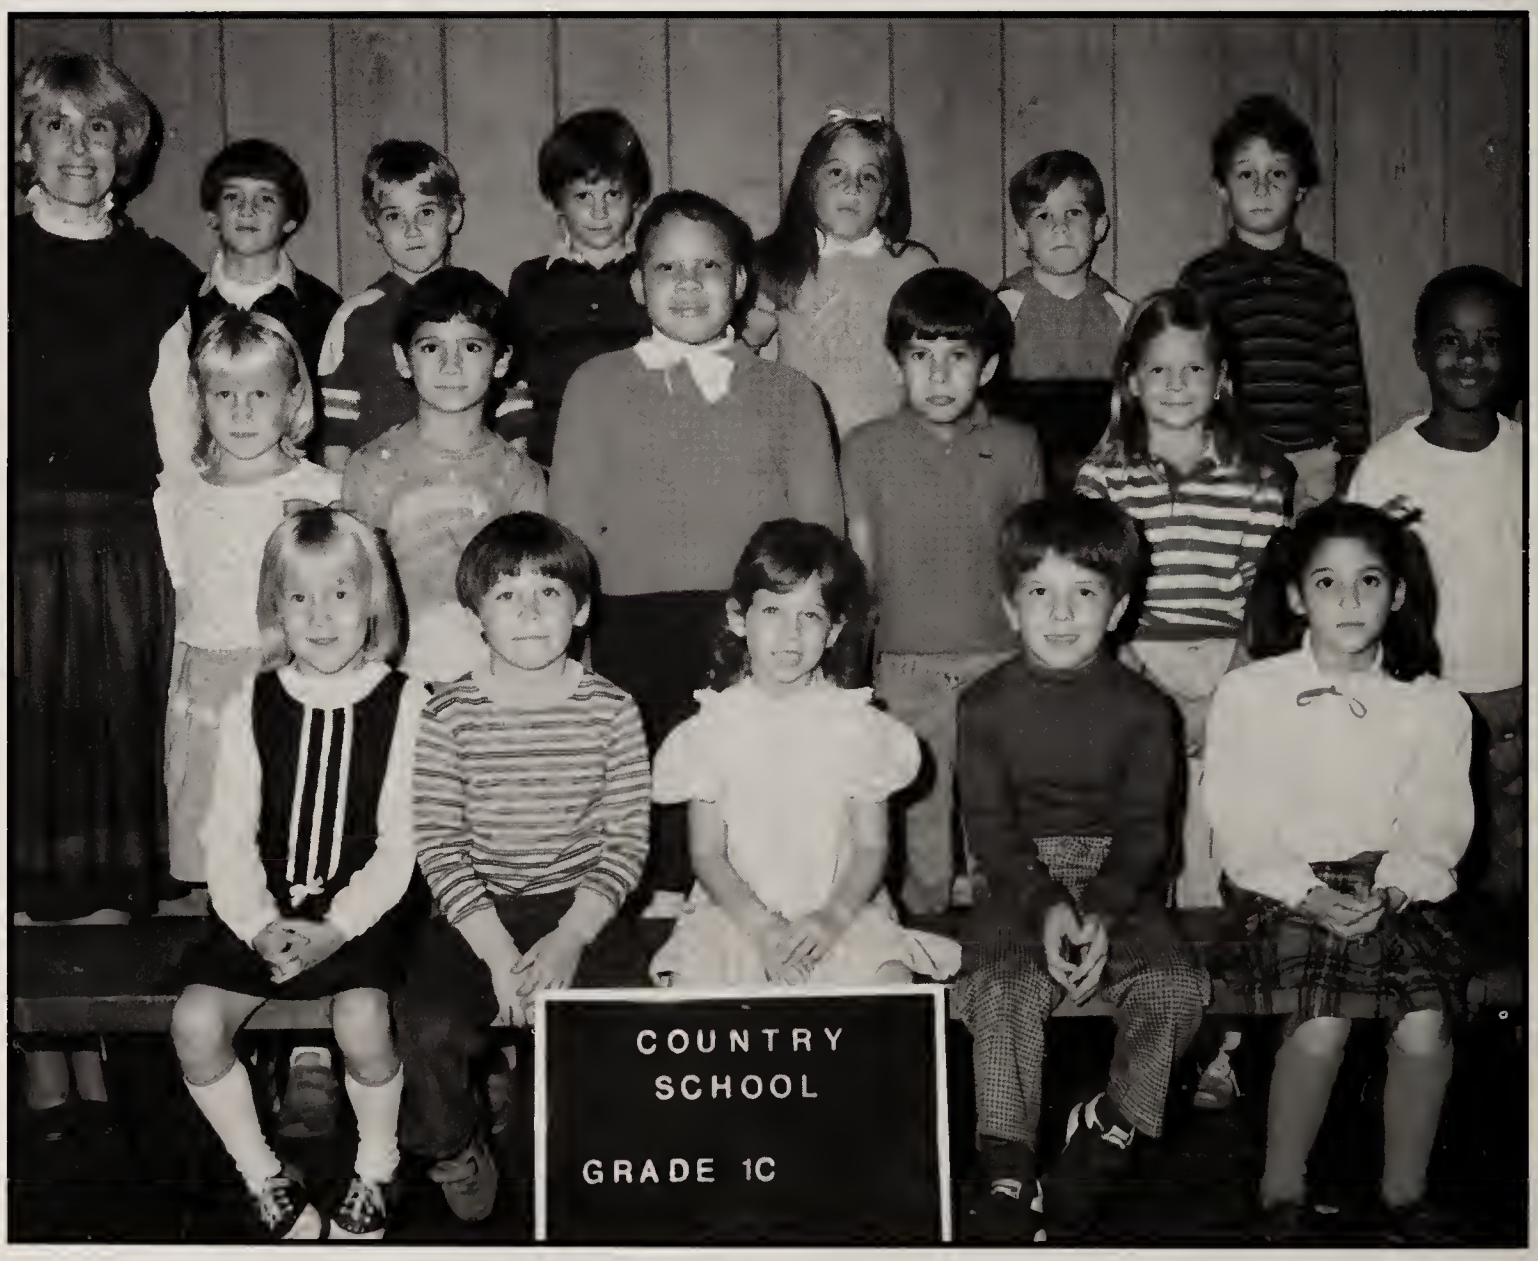
Long gone, but not Forgotten

FIRST NIGHTS OUT. Asa Gallagher, Sam Brooks, Donny Konover, Dave McLean, Pat Purcell, John Dickie, Tyler Lauback, Matt Flaherty and George Smith have had many occasions to get dressed up over the years.

"A GREAT BIG BROWNIE SMILE." Brownie Troop 3049 enjoyed getting dressed up in uniforms and getting to know each other at their weekly meetings.

WESTON GIRLS. Kate Davies, Morgan Heintz, and Alaina Giampapa give us their impression of what high school girls are like.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO . . . This first grade class sure has grown into fine seniors. Who do you recognize?



TUG OF WAR. These 8th graders tried their hardest to win the tug of war for their team.

SUMMER DAYS. Lisa Benjamin and LeeAnn Sechovicz enjoyed playing in the newly built playground in the town center.

SOCCER STUDS. John Dickie and Donny Konover may have been great soccer players in elementary school, but they turned into two great football players in high school.

DOUBLE DELIGHT. Jackie Hamilton and Allison Duff were the cutest of fourth graders in their matching sweatsuits.

BEST BUDDIES. Jennie Parker and Allison Taff were inseperable in kindergarten and are still great friends today.

I KNOW THE ANSWER! Rowena Pring shows great enthusiasm towards a speaker in Country School.

CUTE FACES. Alaina Giampapa, Kate Davies, Kiran Ganda and Stacia Peters sure looked cute at Alaina's sixth birthday party.

BAD NEWS BEARS. Second grade baseball was a popular pastime for many class of 96ers. Do any of these faces look familiar?

BOY SCOUTS. These scouts knew how to have a good time when they were young: Brendan Harley, John Wilson, Tyler Lauback, John Dickie, Sam Brooks, Ben Hopson, Kevin Bray and Bill Mitsakos.

■ ■ ■ First Time Around ■ ■ ■

LEADING THE WAY. Lisa Benjamin and Morgan Heintz, representing Brownie Troop 3049, had fun leading the Memorial Day Parade.

CHINA NIGHT. These fifth graders: Denise Saunders, Lindsay Cohen, Emily Lu, LeeAnn Sechovicz, Julie Diffenbach, Elise Estes, Jessica Renna, Leigh Nolan, Anne Boginski and Brooke Ferrelli, made great ribbon dancers.

From the first days of kindergarden to the final days of senior year, the lifers have never been apart. After thirteen years of memories, we know what it is like to have friends that are always there. As the class of '96 departs, the lifers leave behind a legacy that can never be forgotten.

FIELD TRIP TIME. Lifers Bill Mitsakos, Andrew East and Kevin Bray relax on the Junior class trip to Thompson Island. This class bonding day was a welcome interlude from the stressful days of junior year.

LAYING AROUND. Even at four, Tyler Lauback is a little bit confused by John Dickies' laid-back attitude.

7TH GRADE GALS. Anne Boginski, Stacia Peters, Morgan Heintz and Lee Ann Sechovicz take time from trading clothes and gossiping about the 7th grade boys to smile for the camera.

BASEBALL PLAYERS. Asa Gallagher and Donny Konover are ready to play ball for any team that wants them—or do they have other intentions?

THREE MUSKETEERS. Lifers Mike Treadway, Joe Scheier-Dolberg and Jeff Levine have been the three musketeers of the Class of '96 for as long as anyone can remember.

After All These Years

FRIENDS FOREVER. Julie Diffenbach and Denise Saunders have remained great friends through their thirteen years in the Weston school system.

PRETTY IN PINK. Allison Taff and Laurie Tucker have been together ever since the days of nursery school and puppets.

FABULOUS PAINTERS. Jorie Lord, Judy Korik and Jess Kushner work meticulously on painting the coat-of-arms.

SMILING FOR THE CAMERA. Denise Saunders smiles as she thinks about how great the town hall is beginning to look.

HARD WORKING BROTHERS. Chris and Jay Fulchino put in lots of hours working at the town hall.

TAKING A BREAK. Anya Lakner, Brooke Ferrelli, Marci Jaye, Will Harding, Kalek Briscoe, Anne Boginski, Stacia Peters and Josh Lukaris take a break from constucting to admire their work.

PAINTING THE WALLS. Morgan Heintz and Julie Diffenbach contributed to the authentic looking castle by sponge painting the bricks with different shades of grey.

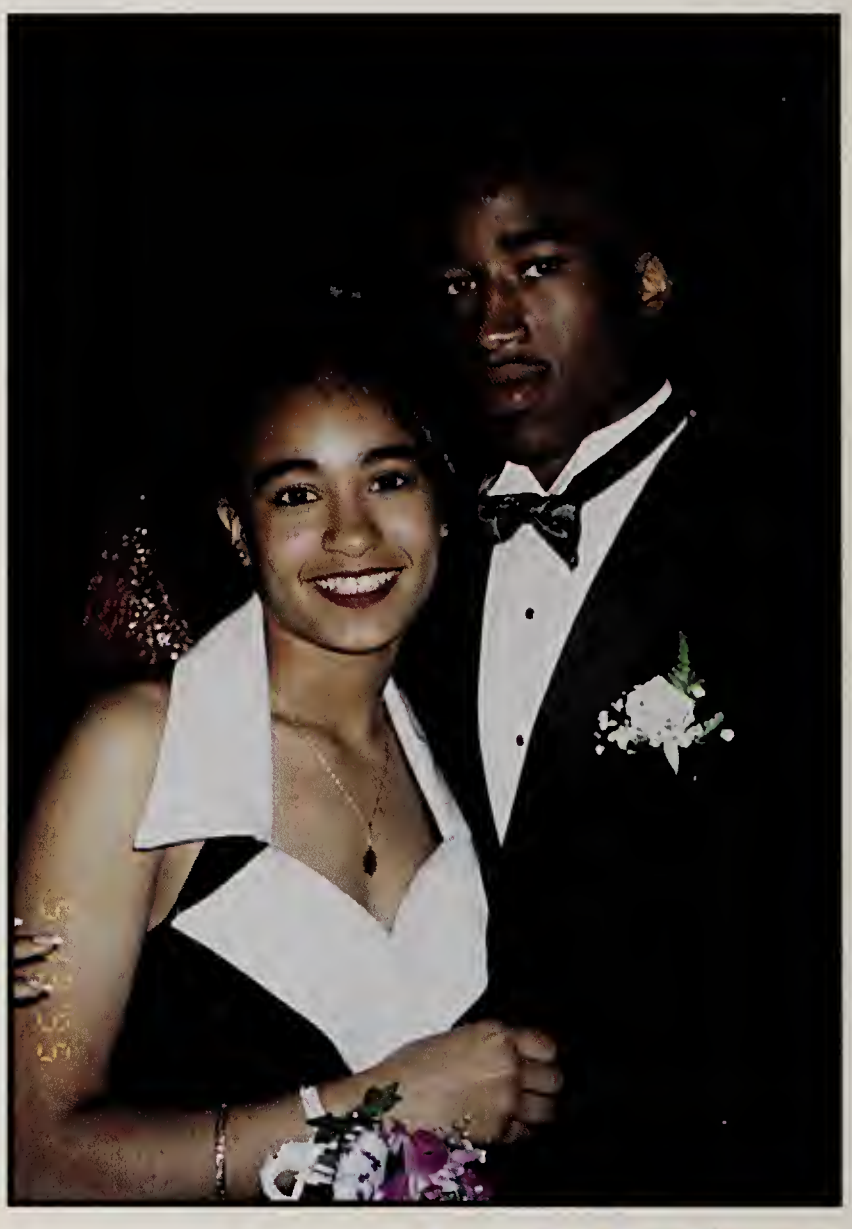
The Making of Magic

The week of preparation for prom night might have been better than the prom itself. Almost every member of the Class of '96 was able to make it to the town hall at least once to lend a helping hand. It was a week of incredible class spirit.

EXCITED FOR TOMORROW. Donny Konover and Ellen Balabanis are excited as they think about the upcoming prom night.

HAVING A BLAST. Jason Farber, Mike Carr, Brian Coburn, Jennie Parker and Lee Ann Sechovicz had a special evening from start to finish.

DASHING. A gorgeous couple—Karim Briscoe and Priscila Torres—for a gorgeous night.



The one time a year that the Town Hall is transformed into a thing of beauty is the night of the Junior Prom—when the Class of 1996 created the magic of "Camelot." It may not be all the fancy clothes and magic that will be most memorable, however. The best part is the closeness that developed between the class members.

PARTY GOERS Leigh Nolan, John Wilson, Taichi Nakashima and Anya Lakner are excited to dance the night away.

King Arthur's Prom Court

NO MORE PHOTOS. Donny Konover, Morgan Heintz and Ellen Balabanis are all smiled out.

After five days of hard work, Emily Lu takes a step back to admire the results of "Camelot." Later in the evening, she and Joseph Scheier-Dolberg were crowned Prom Queen and King, respectively. Thanks to their leadership, the prom was a beautiful success.

Prom Queen

BIG NIGHT. Paul Kurkjian, Jackie Hamilton, Jesenia Castro, Natalia Kennedy, Marisha Baptiste and Kalek Briscoe are all decked out and ready to go for the night ahead.

ENTER . . . Bill Mitsakos and Lindsay Cohen, two of the best dressed people at the prom.

CUTEST COUPLE. Jessica Renna and Chris Fulchino are inseperable.

BEST DRESSED. Will Harding's individuality and Jackie Hamilton's elegance have earned them much respect from the senior class.

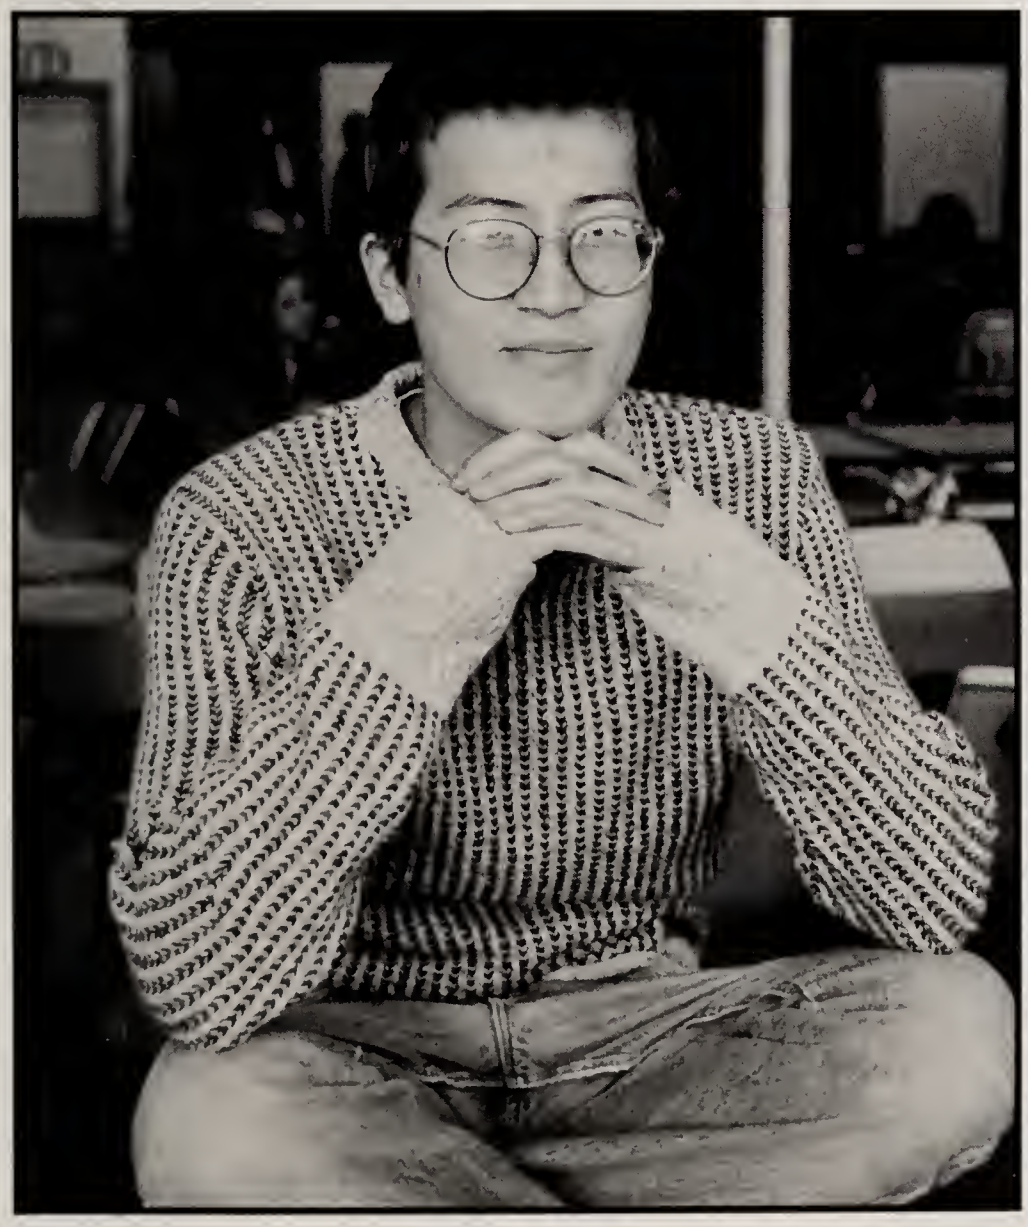
NICEST SMILE. You can tell from Carlos Molinelli and Alaina Giampapa's smiles that they are graduating seniors.

Senior Superlatives

CLASS CLOWN. Thanks to Anya Lakner and Josh Lukaris, we never have a boring day at WHS.

Here are the seniors who have been noticed for their outstanding individual traits. These superlatives give us a good idea of the members of the class of '96 who were noticed for their special features or who are most likely to . . .



BEST ARTIST. Dave Markson, comtemplating what's next.

NICEST EYES. Brooke Ferrelli, Jason Farber and Judy Korik's amazing eyes can break anyone's concentration.

Remembering the First Day

Beth Khalil helped make the new students feel welcomed by particiating in Freshman Orientation Day and the first day barbecue. her great smile and friendly personality brightens the school year round.

A Fresh Start

BROTHERLY LOVE. Even if they aren't the best of buds, Robby and Donny Konover are certainly the best of bros.

TIRED ALREADY. After two weeks of pre-season football, this doesn't seem too much like the first day for Pat Purcell.

TIME OUT. Emily Mullin takes a break from slaving away at the grill to greet her good friends, Jesse Lappin and Emily Starr.

SENIOR STANDING. After riding to school in Priscila Torres' topless jeep, Jackie Chandler and Denise Saunders aren't even wind-blown. The three still look great for the first day of their senior year.

9 YEARS DOWN – 3 TO GO. Alexa Burke and Selena Coppock are two of the most outgoing sophomores. One question – why are they hiding their teeth?

SMILING BIG. LaLena Lewis, Kamilah Munir and Crystal Smith can hardly hide their excitement about beginning their last year here.

After a summer of laughter and good times, many WHS students were not looking forward to another full year of school. However, once welcomed by a group of smiling seniors and reunited with friends, the school year ahead seemeda little less daunting.

Thanks to the Student Council, walking in to school on October 31 was different and exciting. The caf was decorated with painted murals, orange and black balloons, and many other spooky effects. The student body assembled in the gym for a spirited game of family feud and the announcement of the winners for best costumes.

SOCCER TEAM WARRIORS. Tara Abraham, Lee Ann Sechovicz, Abby Kussel, Elise Estes, Amory Bradley, Sarah Jenks-Daly, K.C. Czarnowski and Jill Simon dressed up as warriors.

CRAZY CLOWNS. Dressed up in clown costumes, sophomores Annica White and Abby Kussel are prepared to go trick-or-treating.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN. These seniors: Kate Davies, Emily Lu and Cristin Berkey show lots of spirit on their last Halloween in Weston.

■ ■ ■ ■ Halloween ■ ■ ■ ■

WHAT ARE YOU BOB? Brendan O'Brien sports some funky headwear on this Halloween day.

WILDCATS! Lee Ann Sechovicz and Allison Taff show off their school spirit.

LOOKING DIFFERENT. Mrs. Vouros, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Schuler and Mrs. Kinsman show the school a side of them never seen before.

EASING THE WAY. Seniors Marci Jay and Nadira Bell certainly made the transition to the high school easier for their freshmen brothers, Dan and David, especially with the rides to school every morning.

WHERE ARE YOU? Although he probably wouldn't admit it, Peter Harley missed having his older brother in school everyday.

SISTERLY LOVE. Kelly and Mara Johnson have had great times together these past two years at Weston High, and will keep in close touch in the future.

Family Ties at Weston High

SEE YA LATER. Matt Fulchino will feel the absence of his two older brothers, Chris and Jay, in school next year.

These are the people you try to avoid in the halls, and you always disclaim any information they give to you. Rarely are these people claimed to be your best friend. These people are your brothers and sisters, your siblings.

BROTHERS AND FRIENDS. Kalek and Karim Briscoe have loved having each other around school since kindergarten.

SISTER, SISTER. Kiran and Anjali Ganda are one of the great examples of twin sisters at Weston High.

BREAK TIME. Even our advisors were caught taking breaks. Here, Mr. Walker and Mrs. Davies take a rest in the king and queen's chairs as they prepare for the Junior Class prom.

AREN'T THEY GREAT? There was never a dull moment when Mrs. Kresl-Moffat and Mr. Walker were around.

Who said that Student Government was all work and no fun? The Senior Class leaders: Secretary Kiran Ganda, Treasurer Emily Lu, Mrs. Estes, Vice President Kate Davies, Sac Rep Anya Lakner, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Renna, Mrs. Kresl-Moffat, Mr. Walker, and President Joe Scheier-Dolberg made life fun for themselves and the class year after year. From the senior holiday party to the all nighter after graduation, we all knew we could count on their hard work and enthusiasm to make everything a success.

Thanks to our Class Advisors

HELPING HAND. Although she was only a Class Mother freshman and sophomore year, Mrs. Konover provided continuous support and enthusiasm throughout our four years of high school.

Our years at Weston High have been filled with the best of memories- class trips, class bonding, and class activities. We have gotten to know each other as we know our own families. However, one thing is clear; without the constant faith, support, and dedication of 6 individuals, the class would never have come this far. They are our faculty advisors, Mr. Robert Walker and Mrs. Janet Kresl-Moffat, and our class mothers, Mrs. Alice Davies, Mrs. Noel Estes, Mrs. Norma Renna, and Mrs. Cathy Konover. From selling refreshments at the fall play freshman year to graduation, our advisors have helped us all the way.

We as a class have been truly fortunate in the friends and guides that we have had. We will never forget these fans of ours, and would like to let them know that we are fans of theirs as well.

WORKING HARD. Mrs. Renna worked wonderfully with Mrs. Farber at the Junior Class auction to help make it the most successful auction that the school had ever had.

"OH, WHAT A NIGHT." Mrs. Estes joins Mr. Walker and Mrs. Kresl-Moffat for a snapshot at the Sophomore Semi-Formal.

In Memory of Denise Dunn Taggart

The memories we all have of Mrs. Taggart are never-ending. We remember her beautiful voice, her vibrant personality. We remember Mrs. Taggarts' ability to transform a young, unformed voice into a thing of elegance and power. We remember her amazing talent for communicating with and helping her students. If I close my eyes, I can see her smiling brilliantly at her choruses while conducting a concert.

These memories of Mrs. Taggart remind us daily of the incredible person she was. In her short time, she touched the lives of countless people with her grace and charm.

The memories we have of Mrs. Taggart, our friend, our teacher, will live on forever in our hearts.

We love you Denise, and we miss you.

"Thanks for the Music"

In the many years that Mr. Taggart has been here, he has made a significant impact at Weston High. Whether as a teacher, a colleague, a tennis coach, or a friend, he has and continues to touch the lives of many. We could always count on the love and support so earnestly given by the "T" duo. We appreciate all that they gave us and would like to express our deepest symphathy and thanks to Mr. Taggart.

Seniors Natalia Kennedy, Anya Lakner, Anjali Ganda and Crystal Smith enjoy their final year together at WHS!

I have been through so many times, both good and bad, to even begin to recount them. In the last four years I've met so many great people and shared with you all ,the best years of my life. It's hard to believe we're graduating, my how time flies.

To all the guys PPJFDKAGGLTLES we've had some great times. To my baseball and soccer teammates, it was a pleasure playing with you. JD you are a great b.f.. BK JP thanks for everything. JC you've been the best bro a guy could ask for. Mom + Dad thanks for always being there for me.

Lee Ann I will always love you.

To all my friends in the class of '96 I wish you the best of luck in the future, keep in touch, and never lose sight of your dreams.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; He restores my sole. He leads me in paths of righteousness for His names sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me...Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever. —23rd Psalm

Thank you to everyone who has helped me throughout my years in Weston. Thanks to mom and dad, Chris, JLBKO, RN, JG and everyone whom I have forgotten. Have fun!

Thanks Weston for being my school. I've enjoyed everyone's friendship since Country School. Thank you Mr. Kennedy, my tutor and friend. I'll miss the name calling. Thanks also to the faculty who have helped me through my 13 years at Weston. I will miss the wrestling team and Coach Baldanza who taught me discipline. Mom, Dad, Justine and Amanda, I love you guys! I miss you Mom, you're with me in spirit. Bye Weston! I'll always think of you on my radio show, "R squared in the morning".

"There is something about true friendship that is eternal.
Long after the names and faces are forgotten, the time we shared together,
and the way you affected me,
will always be a part of me.
Because once you allow someone to become close to you,
you allow them to make traces on your life that will be with you after you've gone your separate ways."

JUNIORS

"LIFE MOVES RATHER QUICKLY. IF YOU DON'T STOP TO LOOK AROUND YOU MIGHT MISS IT."

Over the course of the 1995-1996 academic year, the Class of '97 once again floored all of the critics with their tremendous successes.

It all began with the financially successful car wash we held one crisp autumn day. As the year progressed, and more members of the class began driving cars, preparation for our 50's inspired auction got underway. The hard work of the class paid off as we dazzled all of the auction attendees with an astounding evening of fundraising.

Despite the heavy academic burden and the stress of SAT's, the juniors managed to hold an unbelievable prom. The Town Hall was transformed by all of the breathtaking decorations and a good time was had by all.

Overall, the Class of '97 had an incredible year. Class-wide participation was at a record high and the same can be said for class bonding. The spirit of '97 is continuously growing, and as a group, no task is too big.

"DON'T STOP THINKING ABOUT TOMORROW, FOR IT WILL SOON BE HERE."

The Class of 1998 has had an awesome sophomore year. We started off by sponsoring a freshman breakfast on Orientation Day. It was a shock to realize the summer was over, but we quickly got back into the swing of things.

We entered a Kid's Speak Out contest sponsored by Brighams and proudly won second place.

When the snow began to fall, the sophomores put on their skis and went off on their annual class ski trip to Attitash.

In January, we sponsored a return of the 70's dance which was a big success. Everyone wore their tie-dye shirts and bell-bottoms.

The highlight of the year was the sophomore semiformal. There was no doubt about it, it was the best ever. At the end of the year, we washed cars at the Spring Fling.

Although we are not the youngest anymore, we still have two more years to go. We are slowly working our way to the top.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS AND ADVISORS: Alexa Berk, Julie DiMartino, Mr. McCowan, Stell Kim, Andrew Bulbrook, Alexana Wolf, Mrs Zacharias and Ms. Allstrom.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Sophomores Annie Hildreth, Katie Ryan, Suzanne Schaubert and Jenny Kendall clearly have something to laugh about.

"THE JOURNEY OF A THOUSAND MILES BEGINS WITH A SINGLE STEP."

During our first few days as freshmen, we frantically searched our memories for the"zoning map" of the cafeteria our peer leaders had so graciously drawn out for us-telling us where not to sit. But despite the anti-freshmen phase, we finally earned a corner to eat in at the long orange tables with pride. Life at WHS has only gotten better. We've survived archery, "coed"ultimate frisbee, and step aerobics-and over half the class made honor roll, therefore earning frees. No more study halls! The bridges between our class and the rest of the school have sprung up through the various clubs, sports and other activities. Plus, the dinner we sponsored at the fall play was a huge success. All in all, the freshmen have done pretty well over the course of the year-as a class, and as individuals. Everyone has found their own little niche in the WHS community. The lowly freshmen are a little less lowly at this point, and we're sure to come back with a bang as sophomores.

How does it feel working in the high school you graduated from?

When I graduated, I never dreamed I'd be returning to Weston High. Now 25 years later, I'm still going to WHS every day. It's great working here, just as it was being a student here, and now being a parent of students who attend school here. It feels like I never had to leave home. — Penny Theall

Money in the Bank

For three years, the seniors have been talking the talk and this year, they proved they could walk the walk. The efforts of thirteen seniors, along with one junior and eight sophomores, earned the Varsity Field Hockey team their seventh consecutive Dual County League Championship. The team also brought home the North Sectional Championship and were E–Mass runner ups.

From August through November, Ms. Gorman's cries of "Intensity girls" rang throughout the Weston playing fields. As the football players began their warm-up, the field hockey team formed into 4 straight lines and began the infamous passing drills. Long hits and corners were practiced to perfection as the hot summer days melted into the crisp days of autumn. The field hockey team "put money in the bank," to save up for spending it later in the season.

Under the leadership of devoted captains Morgan Heintz and Allison Taff, the field hockey team paraded around school sporting pinnies, crazy hats and team bracelets in order to muster enough spirit to conquer their opponents. All of this hard work and team spirit helped the field hockey team to become 1995 DCL Champs.

Stacia Peters, Morgan Heintz, Lisa Bagley, Whitney Gollinger,and Allison Taff were named to the first team, and Kelly Johnson was named to the second team. However everyone on the team helped contribute to the magic and success. The memories both on the field and off will never be forgotten.

Winners

Led by Captains John Dickie and Tyler Lauback, the Wildcats enjoyed a successful season on the gridiron. Under the leadership of eight talented seniors, Weston finished 7-3, including two out of three wins versus bigger DCL opponents. With a strong, balanced offense and a stingy defense, the 'Cats posted four shutouts while also posting large numbers up on the scoreboard.

The season began with a hard-fought loss to eventual Western Mass. Super Bowl Champion St. Joseph's of Pittsfield. An impressive victory over Concord-Carlisle soon followed, which was the first in four years.

The Weston team had their ups and downs throughout the season, but they appeared fired up at the end with a record of 6-3 heading into the Thanksgiving game.

Wayland was steam rolled on Turkey Day by a determined Weston squad 34-0. The Wildcats succeeded in tying the largest margin of victory in the rivalry's history. It was a great finish to a great season.

Sweet Success

Led by captains Jennie Parker, Lee Ann Sechovicz and Elise Estes and invaluable seniors Anne Boginski and Alaina Giampapa, this years Weston girls soccer team was more successful than ever before.

FANCY FOOTWORK. Senior Anne Boginski's experience and skill were invaluable to the team's success.

The girls made history by defeating Concord this Fall. A great DCL season paved the way for entrance into the state tournament. An enduring season of twenty minute "fun runs" and a dreaded timed three mile kept the Wildcat women in prime condition to peak in the Tourney. Two St. Mary's teams went down painlessly in the first rounds of the tourney. In the semis, nemesis Lynfield was skillfully put away, declaring the 'cats North Sectional champions and putting them in contention for the State title. Though the State final game was tough, the girls walked off the field knowing they had played their best.

The underclassmen reflected the strength of the senior leaders and helped add a variety of talents. Among the most skilled; Katie Ryan and Kathryn Doherty were named to the Second DCL All Star Team, along with Jennie Parker. Lee Ann Sechovicz and Elise Estes were both named to the First DCL All Star team for the second consecutive year. Special thanks to our coaches Franco Bruno and Elaine for an outstanding season.

New Faces

The guy's soccer team had a mix of seasoned veterans accompanied by eight players making their respective debuts at the varsity level. The DCL is a tough league especially when you lack experience. Weston finished the season with a record of 6-10-2. The team played brilliantly at times but lacked consistency. Due to a solid defense almost every game was close.

The two major highlights of the year came under the lights. In the fourth game of the season Weston beat a strong Bedford team 1-0. In the final contest of the season Weston defeated Greater Lowell 3-0. The team played excellently in front of the home crowd on Halloween. Six seniors, including four year goalkeeper Brian Coburn, played in their last game. Taichi Nakoshima, George Smith, Carlos Molinelli, Kalek Briscoe, and Fabio Maciel all ended great careers with a victory.

Congratulations to the six players that earned individual awards. JP won the rookie of the year award. Jason Fernandez was voted the most improved player. Carlos Molineli received recognition from the league as a second team all-star. For the second consecutive year George Smith was a second team all-star and received the prestigious Tuckey Gee award. Fabio Maciel, in his first year participating in the league, was selected as a first team DCL all-star and received the award for the best post-goal celebrations. Brian Coburn finished his career with four letters, four MVP team awards, and was selected to the DCL all-star team each of the past three seasons.

Next year's team should have more experience and finish higher in the league. With the help of excellent first year coach Jeff Mela, and with several strong underclassmen taking over, the future looks bright for Weston soccer.

Captain Carlos Molineli goes up strong for a head ball against Newton South.

All Star Captain Brian Coburn punches out the ball, but not before clocking the Lincon Sudbury forward.

Mike Treadway and Justin Wilson go one and two against Boston Latin.

Captain John Wilson finishes strong to take him to the state meet.

The Weston Harriers started their first season without longtime mentor Don Duncan. Luckily coach John Monz was ready to take over the team, and along with newly acquired assistant coach Sinead Delahunty, he headed the Wildcats to one of their strongest seasons in recent memory. Led by returning captain Michael Treadway, co-captain John Wilson, and sophomore Justin Wilson, the team was optimistic at the beginning of the season. Rounding off the Wildcats top seven was a strong pack of juniors including: Nai Wong, Andrei Muresianu, Tom Brewster, and Gareth Beigun.

The Wildcats would prove to possess acceptable depth which, throughout the regular season, would help them muster a respectable 7-1 record and a share of the D.C.L. title, along with Lincoln-Sudbury.

The boys marched on and acquired second place in the Division 4 Class Meet, bowing only to Seekonk. In a re-match one week later, the Cats got revenge, dashing to a strong second place finish in the Boy's Division 2 State Meet, edging out Seekonk by four points in one of the most exciting meets of the year.

Captain-less and extremely young, the girls were looking at a rebuilding year. Although they were short of runners at each meet throughout the regular season, Megan Miller and Andrea Miller helped lead the Cats to a decent finish at the All-League Meet, and showed the D.C.L. that they are one of the up and coming teams. Even with a small team, the girls had fun and with six runners returning next year, look out for the Weston girls.

Nai Wong sprints past Andre Muresianu to place high at the DCL All-Leauge Meet.

Andrea Miller gives a strong kick at the end of a dual meet this season.

Resilience

At the beginning of the '95 - '96 basketball season, the boys squad had to live with the label that this was to be a rebuilding year. With a new coach in Alex Gallagher and a team of seven sophomores (five sophomore starters), no expectations were placed.

From the first day, the young hoosiers went into combat wanting to prove their critics wrong by gaining the respect they felt was deserved. Although the upper classman were in the minority, strong leadership was exemplified in co-captains Asa Gallagher and Kalek Briscoe, along with their fellow senior Bharat Chopra.

The first four games were dropped, but resilience would be the defining trait carried by the team for the rest of the season. Where some teams would drop their heads, these early developmental games proved to be the motivation Weston needed to push on to become the repeating Natick Holiday Tournament champions. The two hard fought games started a trend, as the unit went on a six game winning streak, in spite of the fact that star sophomore Walden Barzey was out due to injury.

However, more injuries became a real thorn in the team's side when other stars, Paul Kurkjian and Domingo Williams could no longer play. Evan Carlson and Billy Martin stepped up to face the challenge and were named the teams all-stars. Junior Mike (Cukes) Lonergan led the forward line for most of the year and was a great defender and rebounder for the club. Sophomore John (Flight) O'Rourke also stepped up his game and emerged as the team's defensive specialist. The bench was also strong in Bobby Ghorieshi, Nick Keramaris, and in freshman Jared Chandler.

Next year the team will shed its negative labels, and with a core of juniors looks to be a strong contender for the State Champion

A Fresh Start

Beginning the process of building a winning team, the Lady 'Cats took the court this year with their heads high and won their first game in two seasons. Led by new head coach Marion Houser, the 'Cats improved drastically on the court and in their hearts.

Losing by only ten points to arch rival Wayland and six to St. Joseph's, the 'Cats proved to be a team that could contend in the highly competitive Dual County League, despite their losing record. The hard times finally ended. It was in St. Clement's gym where the 'Cats earned their first win- by three points. The losing streak was over and the win seemed to have ligthtened a new path for Weston Girls Basketball.

Senior Captans Kelly Johnson and Marci Jaye provided good leadership throughout the season and offered great support to the five new freshman who earned a spot on the varsity team, including All-Star Sara Peterson. Indeed a new team is appearing and a good future is see ahead.

JV. Front Row: Coach Kara O'Connell, Dawn-Marie Charles, Rachel Lee, Jothi Murali, Brandy DiCicco. Second Row: Alexis Romanow, Suzanne Rousseau, Kate Maruskin, Jill Conley, Caroline Broderick, Katie Kelly.

THE TOSS UP. Krissy Ewton uses her height to her advantage and gains the ball for Weston.

FAST BREAK. All-Star point guard Sara Peterson takes the inbound pass and presses up the floor.

A Great Season

Hard work and determination paid off for yet another season. Coaches Dave Baldanza, Kevin "Tuna" Thomas, and Chuck Grant led the Wildcats to an 11-1 record. In the post-season, the team won the North Sectional Championship for the first time in school history. They also gained a school record, finishing second in the the state.

The team was led by quad-captains Garth Lippman, Kirk Grant, Pat Purcell, and Tyler Lauback. Garth Lippman (160) finished strong winning the sectional and state tournaments. Kirk Grant (171) did extremely well by not losing a dual meet match all year. He placed second in the sectional, third in the state, and fifth at the all-state. Pat Purcell (189) was another sectional champ for Weston. He was third in the state and just barely missed qualifying for the New England tournament.

Seniors George Smith (125), Will Harding (152), Dan Adelson (140), and Josh "Hollywood" Lukaris (130) were major contributors to the team. Junior Kevin McShane (215) placed sixth at the states and will be a force to contend with next year.

The sophmore class contributed numerous successful wrestlers. They were led by All-Star Alex Botchan (135) who won the sectionals and placed third at the states. Ryan McGowan (103) and Ted Chan (145) also were key members to the team's success.

Freshman Andy Starr (112) wrestled impressively for the last part of the year, finishing fifth in the section.

Watch the 'Cats in the future as there are many letter-men returning.

Tide Reigns

This year the Red Tide faced its most difficult task ever. With almost fifty percent of the team gone from the year before, the Tide was hard pressed to match its usual over-achieving accomplishments. Senior tri captains Brendan Wright, Jeff Levine, and Morgan Heintz had help leading the team from transfer student Joselyn Fine. Underclassmen Ben Lee, Dane Callow, John Perry, David Kahler, Gerry Broderick and David Antman continued to provide strong depth at all levels for the boy's side.

On the girl's side, returning lettermen Suzanne Schaubert, Abby Haber, Laura Rabin, Caitlin Wysoki and Alix Lazzari all played integral parts for the girls team

In the last two meets of the season, the Red Tide swamped heavy favorites Concord-Carlisle and Leominster in two of their best performances. The Tide kicked off the postseason at the DCL league meet where opponents were left astounded at the numerous time drops. The efforts earned the boys a runner-up-spot, and the girls an impressive third place finish.

The Tide continued to swamp the competition as the boy's team earned fourth place at the North-Sectional meet. The boys then moved on to the Division II state meet. Several impressive swims earned the Tide 132 points, which was good for a second place trophy, beating the third place team by a narrow six points. The girl's team also swam well as the 200 and 400 freestyle relays clocked the second fastest times in the history of the program. They missed the 400 freestyle record by a mere six hundreths.

With only four of the fifty swimmers graduating, the Tide promises to return in great shape for the 96-97 season.

The Tide Will Rise Again!

SO HOT, WE'RE COOL. Ben Lee, Dane Callow, Chad Caldwell, and David Kahler are prepared for this meet.

BONDING BREAK. Divers Andrew Hastings, Taylor McCallum, Jeanine Esposito, and Alix Lazzari share smiles during diving.

AIR TIME. Brendan Wright pops up for a breath of air while Ben Lee and Jeff Levine wait their turns.

VARSITY. Front Row: Lidia MacDonald, Suzanne Schaubert, Selby Becker, Abbey Haber, Melissa Davidson, Jeanine Esposito, Anne Flynn, Mari Varriali, Cristine Osmond. Second Row: Susan Warren, Alix Lazarri, Carrie Neil, Caitlin Wysocki, Laura Rabin, Taylor McCallum, Amy Stutius, Allison Friedlander, Chloe Levy. Third Row: Laura Fox, Becca Schlowsky, Jen Sluka, Captains Brendan Wright, Morgan Heintz and Jeff Levine, Joselyn Fine, Meredith Ryan, Coach Foley, Coach Valle. Fourth Row: Andrew Nozik, Andrew Hastings, Brandon McDowell,, Nick Veeder, Owen Zacharias, Ben Lee, Matt Rykels, Justin Adelson. Fifth Row: Chad Caldwell, Alex Harbur, Tony Deary, Tazo Inui, John Perry, Gerry Broderick, Dane Callow, David Kahler, David Antman.

RACING. John Wilson strides into a strong finish, out of sight of his opponents.

Peak Performance

DETERMINED. Captain Kate Davies soars over the hurdles and surges past her opponents in the D.C.L. meet.

FLYING AHEAD. Justin Wilson blows past his opponent to put him in contention to place.

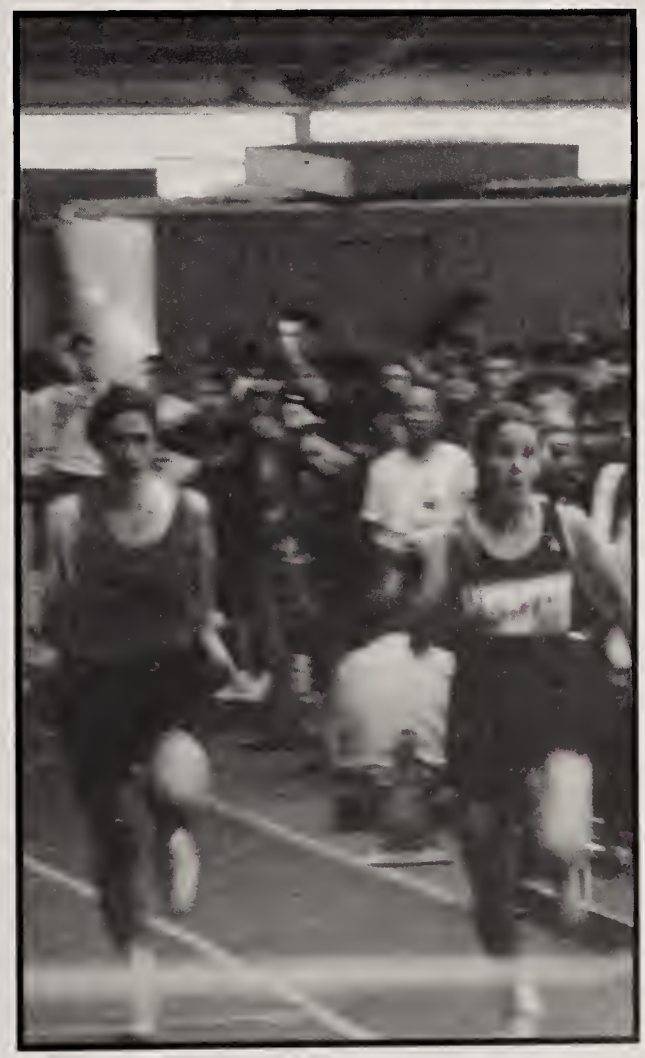
This year's indoor track team continued its tradition of coming up big in the post-season meets. Despite a 4-4 record during the regular season, both teams placed high in the Dual County League Meet and the Class D Championship meet. The boys came in second at both meets, while the girls placed fourth in the DCL and placed well in Class D.

Captains Michael Treadway, Alaina Giampapa, and Natalia Kennedy all finished their careers as DCL champions by placing first in their respective events at the D.C.L. meet.

In addition, several underclassmen blazed through the Red Aurbach Freshmen-Sophomore Meet, including a record breaking 4x400 relay team of Jarrod Thornton, Greg Cress, Omar Coston, and Justin Wilson.

With the success of the underclassmen, the future continues to look bright for Weston's Winter Track Team. Under the colorful leadership of coaches Maguire, Delahunty, and Kelly, many more wins can be expected in the future.

SUPER SOPHS. Annica White and Lizzy Frisbie show off their skills and bring in points to help Weston place second in the D.C.L. meet.



SWEET SUCCESS. All-Star Captain Mike Treadway takes time to enjoy himself after a first place race.

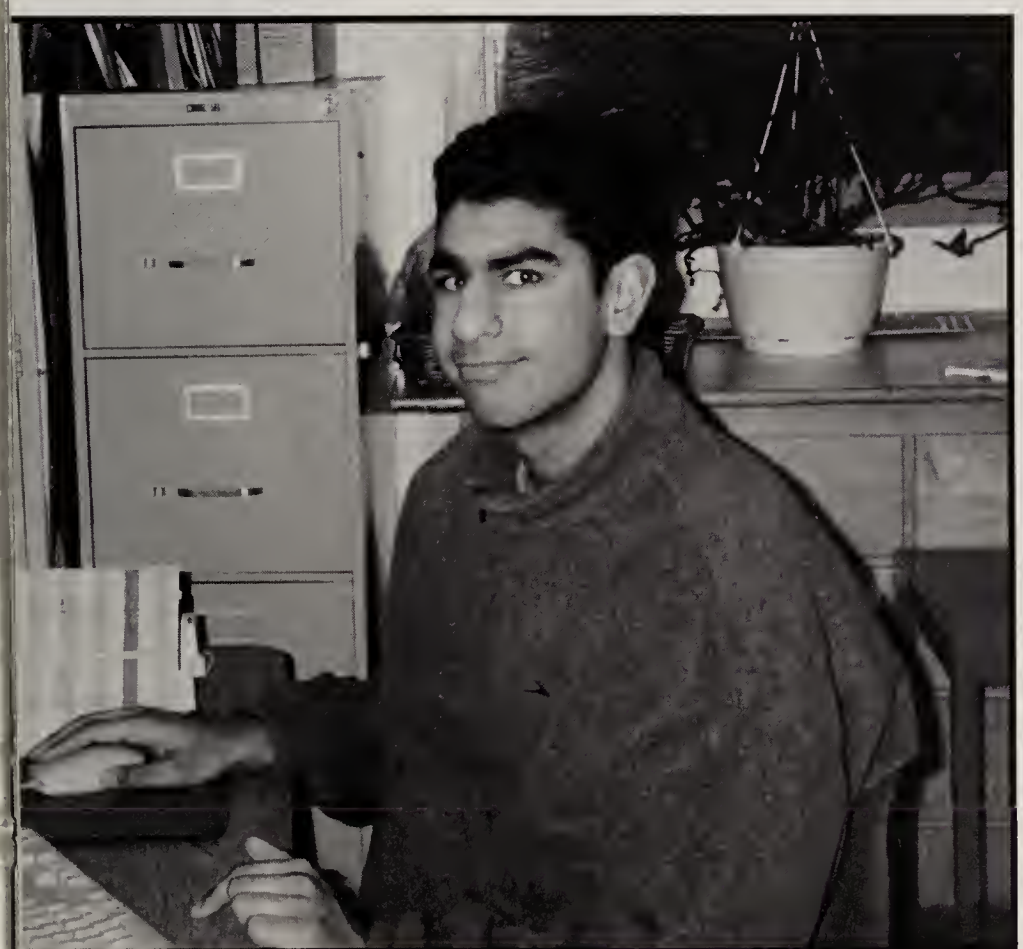
HARD AT WORK. The faculty of Weston High are indebted to Liz Kraft for her crafty cutting and cropping.

GOOD INPUT. Elysha McAllister dedicates her attention to some wise words from yearbook advisor Mrs. Nickeson.

ACTIVITIES EDITORS. Julie Diffenbach, Anjali Ganda, and Laurie Tucker do not let rain, snow or sleet keep them from finishing thirty-one pages of Panorama '96.

FROM PLACE TO PLACE. When not cruising in her purple Amigo, Co-editor in Chief Lisa Benajamin can be seen working hard in Room 2.

ON TOP OF THINGS. Bharat Chopra gives a hundred percent every day as Co-editor in chief of the yearbook.



The Best Times are Pastimes

Through the years the Class of '96 has proven that it knows how to have a good time. From strutting our stuff during the "Whangdoodle" Play to dancing away at Middle School dances, we showed everyone what it was like to be naturally talented at activities. While trudging through mud and leaves to sell "Thin Mints" and learning ballroom etiquette in fifth grade, life never presented us with a boring moment. Looking back on thirteen years come and gone, it's easy to see how time can fly when you're having fun. The Class of 1996 will always remember the best times, the pastimes, we shared.

MMMM, YUMMY. Allison Duff and Lisa Benjamin are skilled businesswomen from Troops 3053 and 3049.

GETTING DOWN. Asa Gallagher shows off his slick new moves at the Green House dance.

FALL BALL. This group of girl's soccer buddies kicked its way through the fall of freshman year.

GETTING INVOLVED. Can in hand, Donny Konover, Brian Coburn and John Dickie wait for their afterschool activities to begin.

TUTU QUEEN. Jessica Kushner has always been a very talented performer.

Dear Brian,
We couldn't be more pleased with the way you've handled your high school years. You seem to have embrace our "Work hard, play hard" ethic. You've managed to balance your commitments to academics, athletics, work experience and social life. People have often said to us, "No matter what Brian does in life, he'll be successful." We definitely agree. Congratulations on your graduation. We hope you'll always have fond memories of Weston

After all these year, the only memories I have of me are also memories of you. As we go our separate ways, I can do nothing but take a part of you with me and leave a part of me with you. No matter the distance, you will always be close to my heart. In good times and in bad, know that I truly have been, and always will be, by your side.

Congratulations and I love you.
Anjali

Dear Anjali,

Well, it looks like nothing's really changed over the last 15 years or so!

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you the best of luck next year. For 17 years we've been together, through good + bad, in all that we have done. I will miss you so much next fall, when our duo will have been broken up into two separate parts. However, I want you to know that even though for the 1st time we'll be in different schools, w/different lives, different friends and different experiences, my heart will always be with you. You are my only sibling + a true best friend. I will be thinking of you always + I know you'll find success in all that you choose to do. Congratulations for your graduation! I'm so proud of all that you've accomplished.

Lots of love,

Your doting Mama and Papa

Joe,

You're the greatest!

We love you.

Grandma and Grandpa

You, dear George, have

Charmed us

With your creativity,

Amazed us

When your head

Repelled soccer balls and errant fists,

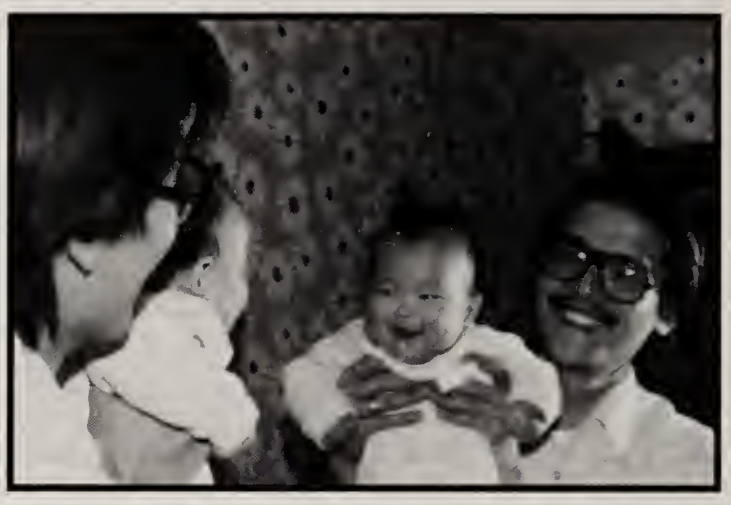
Refreshed us

With you calming presence,

And found us Dozer.

Love Mom, Dad, Andrew, Ben,
and Dozer Mancini

Congratulations, Class of 1996!



Emily

From an adorable little princess to a talented prom queen
you brought joy to our lives.
Your future shines as bright as your smile.
We are do proud of you &
love you very, very,...much.

Congratulations from the Mother's Group of the Class of '96

You've given us lots to talk about . . .
and lots to be proud of!

To the following friends–
Mike–Boat Nerd, Tiesel, Lineage Boy–It has been 8 long years since the oreo/tofu swindle. Just remember, when we're both powerful billionaires, I'll always have $1 more. Stop blaming the go-cart on me, we both know it's your fault
Joe: Sewataro, Becket (Nachos a looser), BJEP, P.Jamborees, Halloweens, Class Council and more–we did it all in style. You are the king of slick–thanx for growing up with me.
Morg: 1st girl friend–from Powers preschoolers to high school seniors, 13 years and too many memories. ILU Stanky.
Abs: My favorite soph semi+prom date–stop whining and sell the horse. You will be taking my last name so "suck it up."
Jess: 8th grade semi date+co–editor–although we fight too much, we'll always be siblings. Do me one favor–L.T.D.
Em: Keep smiling–and "get over it."
Lee: Hey world–Leigh watches the X-Files.
Anjali: Take 3 slow breaths and RELAX!
KD: I'm still sore from all our adventures.
Darin: computer lord–thx for everything.
Tide: 100% bald, 100% sac–G.L. next year.
Joanna, Katy-beth, E-man, Brendan, Wu, Ed, and everyone else–I couldn't have had a better group to spend four years with– I love you all, Love Jeff

KEVIN and JULIE

So unique, so wonderful
We've loved every moment so far!!

From sleepless nights and endless feedings
To peek-a-boo and morning laughter.
From books and songs and runarounds
With infinite questions and opinions
To test our intellect and openness
Many a hug or a Kiss among the miles of wishes.
Creative insights, boundless curiosity,
limitless joys!

Remember thunderstorms, camping, cross-country explorations, California, Disneyland, Minnie, Joshua Tree, Nova Scotia, Wellfleet, Drumlin, the bat, renovations, yummy foods, projects, lemonade stands, lessons, sports, hiking, the Holidays, family, Shayna, Luna, friends, Adam, loved ones past, laughing, endless homework, stress, plays, sharing the days, singing the night away!

We've provided opportunities – selected environments – and nurtured you along with a loving extended family, devoted teachers, and caring communities-
Alfa and Denise among the best . . .
In response you've grown broad with knowledge and talent
Deep with rivers of passion for causes, for people.

Don't forget the bad for it makes the good sweeter.
Make your dreams your reality
Your passion for life!
Congratulations – We're mighty proud!!!

Forever and Always,
Love You,
Mom + Dad

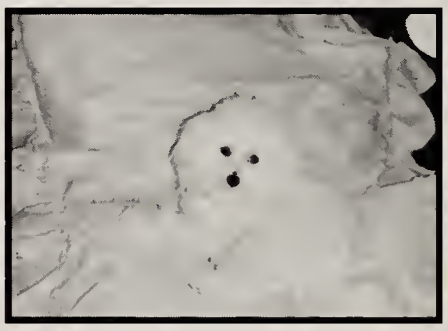
Oh the memories I have, the stories to relate,
Since you joined our family, I guess it was fate.
That in 1977 as Jeffrey Scott you did incarnate.
We wanted another child, be it girl or boy,
But never did we expect such a bundle of joy.
Dougie needed a baby brother to tease,
So you arrived on November 13, eager to please.
A happy baby, you were filled with giggles,
Eager to explore everything, you were all wiggles.
You tried to eat the deoderant from the diaper pail,
Yet getting dressed, you resembled a snail.
Jeffy, you taught us wisdom and to clearly see
If "I be's nice to them and they be's nice to me."
One day while shopping in our local supermart,
You grabbed a hunk of lettuce from another lady's cart,
At the age of four in the bathbtub you fell asleep,
What a fright even though the water was only 2" deep.
At Camp Becket two gerbils you excitedly won,
Soon we had hundreds, wasn't that fun?
One day my mother gave you a few words to spell,
"Not now Grandma, I'm on vacation" her you did tell.
You took your time learning to read and write,
Now you are an honor student and study past midnight.
You've been an incredible and delightful son,
It's hard to believe that this is your graduation.
Now comes the best part, your mother's advice,
I will not be verbose, just simple and concise.
Sometimes life is stormy and sometimes just a flurry,
Believe me honey, it's a waste of energy to worry.
Remember Jeffrey, the symbol of peace is a white dove,
And success is truly measured by how much you love.
I hope you understand what I say to you clearly,
You are a dynamite kid and I love you dearly.

Hugs and Kisses.,
Mom

You didn't really like me when I arrived years ago,
And got so mad when I peed on your friend Joe.
Now I dash into your room and jump on the bed,
And you smile with pleasure as I lick your sweet head.
I love the times when you throw me a toy,
Jeffy, is the most wonderful, good-tasting big boy.

Love and licks,
Sagey



Jeff, as you head off to college never forget the times gone by,

Like crash-up derby, ice cube hockey and Warm Cub which kept us dry.

We grew up as buddies, side by side,
always sharing it all,

Even on Halloween when you let me combine though my pile was small.

Of course we also got in trouble together
for breaking walls to toys,

And don't forget on the plane,
after " How 'bout a 7-up like your boys?"

You need no "good luck" for you'll be successful to the end,

But I'm always here if you need anything
as your brother and your friend.

Love, Doug

Jeff asked so little, this small boy...
Whether I was wrong or right,
Those tiny arms still hugged me tight.
To be my helper thrilled him so,
Just to follow where I go.
To chat and talk when we were alone,
And feel my time was all his own.
After childhood has passed
Only invisible things remain
Like memories and love
Which form a golden chain.

My wish for the best always to my preci ,us son.
Love always, Dad
To Life-L'Chiam

Dear Jo (Jess),

I am so proud of who you have become and all that I know you will do.

I'm lucky you are my sister and I'm grateful you are my friend.

Panorama is a yearly production of the yearbook staff of Weston High School, 444 Wellesley Street, Weston, MA, 02193. The theme of this year's book was "Good Times Together." The book was distributed near the end of May.

Panorama was printed by Jostens-Hunter Publishing Company, 2505 Empire Drive, P.O. Box 5867, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, 27113. The book contained 216 pages; the press run was 350 copies. The trim size was 8 1/2 by 11 inches. The company representative was Arnie Lohmann; the design consultant was Rick Brooks, State College, PA.

Panorama's cover was professionally designed by Josten-Hunter artists and individualized by the yearbook editors, Bharat Chopra and Lisa Benjamin. It used a maroon (791) base material with a silk screen process in gray ink (356) on the front lid and spine. The second color was a new lazer foil, which was also used to stamp the individual names of seniors.

The endsheets were Comtempore paper stock in pumice (#267) The design on the front endsheet was created by Rick Brooks.

Sixteen pages in the opening section were printed using four-color process.

Senior candid portraits were taken by Tim Morse, Morse Photography, Carlisle, MA. A few seniors submitted their own photos. Undergraduate pictures were taken by O'Connor School Pictures, Tewksbury, MA. Candid photos were taken by the yearbook staff photographers, by members of the photography class, and by Roberta Siegel, Weston, MA. Many candid photos were contributed by students.

The opening 32 pages used Lustro 90 pound imported German paper; the balance of the book used text 80 pound white paper.

The yearbook was created on a Macintosh Power Mac 7100/80 using Josten's Yeartech program, Adobe PageMaker 5.0, Adobe Illustrator 5.0, and Microsoft Word 5.1a. It was sent to the publisher on disk.

"Everything can change in the blink of an eye, so let the good times roll before we say goodbye."

PASSING TIME. Beth Khalil, Ellen Balabanis, and Stacia Peters enjoy each others company between classes.

KEEP IN TOUCH. Emily Lu and Leigh Nolan will make sure to remain in contact with each other next year when they are away at college .

LOOKING FORWARD TO THOSE LONG SUMMER DAYS. Joanna Arkema and Vicki Molinelli are busy planning their summer together.

SHORT TIME TOGETHER. The McLaughlin brothers, Ian and Stephen, enjoy their only year together at Weston High.

BEST FRIENDS. Lee Ann Sechovicz and Brian Coburn treasure the last moments they have together at Weston High School.

RELIEVED. We know Anya Lakner will miss all the times she spent taking pictures for the yearbook. . . or will she?

READY FOR SUMMER. Keone Glover, Garth Lippman, Karim Briscoe, and Josh Lukaris are excited to be done with school.

WISHING FOR MORE TIME. Lisa Benjamin, AnneMarie Coebergh, Kiran Ganda and Jessica Renna will miss the fun times they had together as seniors.
